

JEREMY HART BIOGRAPHY

MUSKOGEE, OK - Jeremy Hart has been singing since a very young age. He started out singing in church and to this day, Southern Gospel music is his all time favorite. While growing up listening to artists such as Gold City, The Kingsmen, The Cathedrals, The Hinsons, McGruders and many others, Jeremy was influenced, inspired, and hooked on the music. He wrote his first song when he was around the age of 7 and has continued to write and share the gospel through song ever since that day. In June of 2006, Jeremy released his debut studio recording, What I Have. In 2008 he released his second recording Set Free, produced by, Singing News Fan Award Musician of the Year nominee, Matthew Holt. Set Free contains ten original songs written by Jeremy Hart. In September of 2009, Hart's third album, Every Generation, was released which featured a mixture of classic hymns and modern worship favorites. Jeremy's latest release is an all original album entitled "Give Me Grace." Jeremy regularly travels and ministers, with both singing and preaching, in concerts, conferences, revivals and church services.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON JEREMY HART, VISIT WWW.JEREMYHARTMUSIC.COM